

AUIS

Engineering Department

Newsletter | November 2019

AUIS Engineering Hosts Research Collaboration Symposium

American University of Iraq, Sulaimani (AUIS) hosted research symposium on November 27, 2019 organized by the University's Engineering department. The event, titled "AUIS Research Collaboration Symposium," marked a new, pioneering effort by the University to form a nucleus for collaborative research aimed at enhancing the quality and value of university graduates. Read more >

Student Publications

Six papers written by AUIS students in Dr. Ahmed Salih's Engineering drilling and Material Science class have been accepted for oral presentation at the International Conference on Nanotechnology and Its Applications. Read more >

Field Trip to Najmaddin Company

On November 11, 2019, the AUIS Engineering Club organized a field trip for Civil and Construction Engineering majors to visit Najmaddin Company. Read more >

Dukan Dam Trip

On November 14, 2019, Energy Engineering majors went on a field trip organized by the AUIS Engineering Club to the Dukan Dam, located northwest of Sulaimani city. Read more >

Surveying Class Field Trip

Students in Wrya Abdullah's surveying course went on a field trip to the Chwarqurna-Dukan Highway project on November 18, 2019. Read more >